MYSORE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BOARD.

Notice No. 1730, dated 13th February 1920.

The Kannada Arthasadhaka Patrike was started as a Weekly Journal on 1st January 1917 in order to spread sound ideas on economic subjects among the rural population and stimulate and develop economic activities in the State. The main lines on which the Journal is being run is indicated below.

2. Applications from private individuals offering to take over the conduct of the Patrike having been received, Government have decided to transfer the Journal to a private agency with effect from 1st April 1920 or other suitable date.

3. Sealed tenders will accordingly be received by the undersigned up to 5th March 1920 from individuals or syndicates formed for the purpose who may be willing to take over the paper. Every tender should be accompanied by a detailed scheme showing how it is proposed to conduct the Journal and the assistance, if any, that is expected from Government.

4. The agency to which the Journal is finally handed over will be expected to run the Journal on the existing lines and any concessions that Government may grant will be subject to the condition that the Journal is conducted on lines approved by Government. Permission, however, will be granted for the insertion in the Journal of topics of general interest with a view to enhancing its utility.

5. All departments and agencies connected with economic development will be asked to co-operate to maintain the journal at a high level of usefulness.

6. Each tender should be accompanied by an earnest money of Rs. 50 which will be returned in due course on the necessary guarantees being given by the accepted tenderer and will be returned soon after disposal of the tenders in the case of the others. The tenders should be superscribed "Tender for conducting the Arthasadhaka Patrike".

7. The final acceptance of the tender will rest with the Government who do not bind themselves to accept the lowest or any tender.

8. The Patrike has at present a circulation of 3,200 copies per week and its rate of subscription is Re. 1 per annum. Sample copies may be had on application either from the Editor of the Journal, Ringwood, Bangalore or from the undersigned who will also furnish any other relevant information that may be wanted.
